

“Drop Everything and READ!”
at the Roseville Public Library!

Bookmark Design Contest

What is D.E.A.R.?

D.E.A.R. stands for “Drop Everything and Read,” a national celebration of reading designed to remind folks of all ages to make reading a priority activity in their lives. Because, what’s more fun(damental) than reading, really?

How can you celebrate D.E.A.R.?

Design a bookmark that celebrates your love of reading. Using crayons, colored pencils, pens or markers, design an original bookmark in the space that shows how you celebrate reading. You may use illustrations and/or words. (Do not use copyrighted characters.)

- Entries accepted starting March 1
- Deadline for Entries is March 31
- Winners will be announced on Wednesday, April 12 “National D.E.A.R. Day”

A winner will be chosen in each category. The winning design will be printed on bookmarks that will be distributed at the Roseville Public Library. All designs will become the property of the Roseville Public Library and cannot be returned.
